It's My Turn

Inside the NFL

Seems Like Old Times

Mel Brooks' Blazing Saddles

Here's the wild and woolly western that made Mel Brooks a household name. Mel plays a girl-hungry governor with Harvey Korman as his aide. Gene Wilder is an ex-gunfighter grown giddy on gin. Madeline Kahn won an Oscar nomination as a dance-hall singer. Adult humor, profanity, violence. (R-133) September 2,5,11,14,20

The Hunter Steve McQueen

Unpredictable, crafty and rugged, this modern-day bounty hunter uses unconventional means to track down bail-jumpers. In a powerful action drama, Steve McQueen marks a trail from L.A. to Chicago picking up a job that other law officers don't want to handle. Adult situations and language, violence. (PG-137) September 4,8,12

Beginning its fifth season, Inside the NFL brings you 22 weeks of lively coverage right through Super Bowl XVI. Join Len Dawson and Nick Buoniconti each week as they analyze action clips of all the games, the big plays and the upsets. They'll also offer special features, timely interviews and some incisive predictions for the upcoming weekend—to keep you on top of the NFL by taking you beneath the surface. Sept. 3,4,10,11; 17,18; 24,25

Caddyshack

Here's a wacked-out country club complete with a slightly domed greenskeeper (Bill Murray), a resident playboy (Chevy Chase), a pompous club president (Ted Knight) and a bad-news millionaire (Rodney Dangerfield). Get set for double-barreled confusion on and off the fairways as the four tee off in this wild comedy. Adult humor, profanity, nudity. (R-1:38) September 3,7,11,15,19,23,26

Airplane!

Hilarity flies sky-high as a plane-load of wacky passengers and crew spoof all those air disaster movies. Sheer lunacy and a gag a minute as Robert Hays, an ex-pilot now terrified of flying, pursues Julie Hagerty, the jet's stewardess, on a flight from L.A. to Chicago. Others contributing to this surprise blockbuster comedy of the year: Lloyd Bridges, Peter Graves, Robert Stack. Adult humor, violence, nudity. (PG-126) September 8, 10, 14, 19, 22, 26, 30

It's My Turn

Jill Clayburgh
Michael Douglas

A warm, perceptive love story set against today's shifting lifestyles couples a vital, witty woman with two very different, romantic men. Jill Clayburgh (Oscar nominee for Starting Over) plays a math prof whose life seems the perfect equation—until she meets her new stepbrother (Michael Douglas) on a whirlwind weekend. Charles Grodin is Jill's live-in lover. Adult situations, language. (R-1:31) September 4, 10, 15, 19, 23, 27

Walt Disney Productions'

The Cat from Outer Space

Ken Berry
Sandy Duncan
McLean Stevenson

Jake, an extraterrestrial tomcat, crash-lands his flying saucer and befuddles earthlings with his amazing powers. Ken Berry and Sandy Duncan star as scientists befriending the galactic cat. McLean Stevenson, Harry Morgan and Roddy McDowall co-star in this cosmic comedy. (G-1:58) September 5, 9, 13, 17, 21, 25, 29

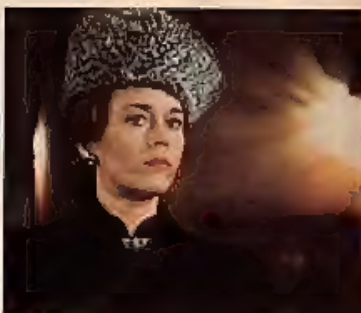

SPORTS SPECIAL

Countdown to the Showdown: Leonard-Hearns

Here's a preview of the long-awaited bout—and a look at the rise of both fighters to the top of the welterweight division. There'll be interviews with Thomas Hearns and Sugar Ray Leonard, films of them against comparable foes, a study of strategies both must use to win and the opinions of experts from both camps. September 12, 15

Julia

Jane Fonda Vanessa Redgrave

Jane Fonda and Vanessa Redgrave are near perfection in a tender, poignant story of friendship and courage. In this touching, vibrant tapestry of the late 1930s, two headstrong girls turn into extraordinary women. Vanessa Redgrave won an Oscar as Julia. "A masterful movie" (Gene Shalit) Violence. (PG-1:57) Sept. 9, 12, 14, 20, 24, 28

Being There

A naive gardener, whose notion of life has been shaped by TV, stumbles into a world of wealth and power in this sly comedy. With Peter Sellers and Melvyn Douglas. Adult situations, language, humor. (PG-2:09) Sept. 3, 6

Battle Beyond the Stars

Trying to save his planet, Richard Thomas assembles a group of space misfits to fend off thermal-communicating creatures. An exciting sci-fi comedy with John Saxton. Adult situations, humor. (PG-1:43) Sept. 4, 8, 13, 19

The story of the American press—from hand-operated presses of Colonial America to the complex TV broadcasts of today. Host Dick Cavett introduces you to the giants of journalism: Ben Franklin, William Randolph Hearst, Joseph Pulitzer and Henry Luce. HBO Sneak Preview for October

Starring Stiller and Meara. "Bewltchers" Jerry Stiller and Anne Meara are up to their usual tricks telling you the treats in store for October. Jerry and Anne preview the upcoming sports, specials and movie highlights for next month. September 23, 27, 29

The Prize Fighter

An inept boxer and his trainer get involved with gangsters in a knockout of a comedy. Tim Conway is a fighter with a perfect record: 20 fights, 20 knockouts, 20 losses. Trainer Don Knotts urges him along in the tough fight game of the Depression '30s. Profanity. (PG-1:39) Sept. 5, 7, 10, 13, 18, 27

Middle Age Crazy

Bruce Dern
Ann-Margret

Reaching middle age, Bobby Lee Burnett seems to have everything: a thriving Texas business, a luscious wife and a spectacular house in the suburbs. But, in a very clever romantic comedy, Bobby Lee's life begins to come apart as he takes off on a wistfully funny pursuit of his lost youth. Bruce Dern stars as the man hassled and hustled at home and work. Ann-Margret plays his loving wife. Adult situations, profanity, nudity. (R-1:31) September 25, 29

Robert Redford Brubaker

In a tense, hard-hitting drama, the warden of a cruel, corrupt Southern prison farm fights for reform and shakes up the entire community. Robert Redford, in one of his most powerful roles, takes on the graft-ridden system single-handedly. Jane Alexander, as a governor's aide, Yaphet Kotto and Murray Hamilton co-star in a film based on an actual case. Adult situations, profanity, graphic violence, nudity. (R-2:11) September 27

Every Which Way But Loose

Clint Eastwood

Clint Eastwood changes pace in this comedy-drama playing an easygoing truck driver and the best barroom brawler in the San Fernando Valley. Sondra Locke co-stars as a would-be recording artist. But Clyde, a precocious pet orangutan, almost steals the show. Music from Mel Tillis and Charlie Rich. Profanity, violence, nudity. (PG-1:55) Sept. 26, 28

So You
Wanna Be
A Star?

What does it take to get to the top? This HBO documentary shows you the true story of five aspiring performers and their desire to "make it" in the entertainment world. Included are Valerie Lee, a dancer-singer-actress trying to succeed on Broadway, and Larry Miller, a young comedian. An inside look at "Show Biz." Sept. 3, 6, 11, 13, 19

Michael York

The White Lions

Exotic animals running wild and free in nature are backdrop for the adventures of a modern American family in the African bush country. Animal researcher Michael York, his photographer wife, Glynnis O'Connor, and their young daughter stumble on a rarity—two white lion cubs and their mother. Adult language. (PG-1:36) September 30

Glen with Tanya

Glen Campbell and Tanya Tucker star in a dazzling musical special taped at Harrah's in Reno, Nevada. Glen performs the hits that have made him one of today's most popular singers. Among them: "Gentle on My Mind" and "Rhinestone Cowboy." Hear Tanya's rendition of "Delta Dawn," the hit that brought her stardom. (.57) Sept. 28

PATTON George C. Scott

General George Patton ran roughshod through Europe of the '40s—and through Hollywood, as well, in the '70s. An entertaining, intelligent war film, Patton won eight Oscars including Best Picture. George C. Scott is the brash, flamboyant general; Karl Malden, his calm foil, Omar Bradley. Adult language. (2:56) Sept. 8, 12, 16, 20, 25, 28

Grand Theft Auto

Ron Howard and perky Nancy Morgan cause havoc on the highways in this comedy-romance. After the two youngsters decide to elope (and borrow daddy's Rolls Royce for the getaway), a high-speed convoy of patrol cars, helicopters and just about anything gas powered gets in on the fun. Adult language, violence. (PG-1:24) September 1, 6, 12

GLORIA Gena Rowlands

The mob wants the kid—but they're going to have to step over Gloria first. In her Oscar-nominated role, Gena Rowlands plays an ex-gun moll turning the tables on local gangsters while protecting a boy with a price on his head. Adult situations and language, violence. (PG-2:01) September 2, 6, 18, 20

Where The Buffalo Roam Bill Murray Peter Boyle

Bizarre adventures of an offbeat newsman are the starting point for chaotic comedy. Bill Murray (Stripes) as a '60s journalist with a unique approach to news causes havoc everywhere from a Nixon campaign plane to a drug-bust courtroom. Adult situations and humor, profanity. (R-1:36) Sept. 6, 18, 25

There Goes the Bride

Madness and mayhem explode on the day a nervous ad executive's daughter gets married. Off-the-wall Tom Smothers, Twiggy and Martin Balsam all collide with ridiculous results. Adult language and humor, violence. (PG-1:27) Sept. 5, 11, 16, 20, 26

Fistful of Dynamite

A bandit looking for a good bank to rob meets up with an Irish terrorist on the run in this sprawling adventure drama. James Coburn and Rod Taylor are the colorful duo who end up in the middle of a Mexican revolution. Adult situations and language, violence. (PG-2:16) September 1, 4, 13, 19

Touched by Love

A nurse's aide finds the courage and means to communicate with a handicapped child in this heartwarming drama. Deborah Raffin stars in this real-life story. Adult language. (PG-1:33) September 1, 5, 12

Missing Persons: Dead or Alive?

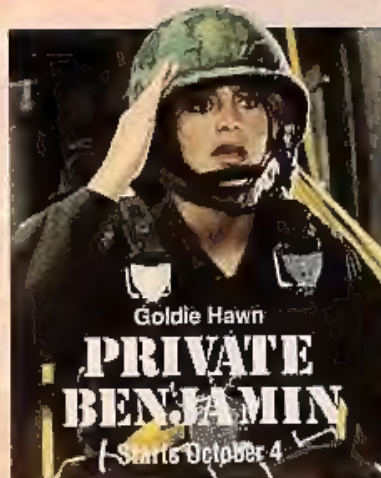

What happened to Michael Rockefeller? Jimmy Hoffa? D.B. Cooper? Each suddenly disappeared leaving behind only a few clues. Host Patrick O'Neal presents the evidence. Sept. 1, 4, 9
